

Employee Ethics Agreement

Favored Healthcare Services places in depth emphasis on ethics, and has established the following policies to respect employees and to protect clients of Favored Healthcare Services:

- Favored Healthcare Services employees are not allowed to discuss political or religious beliefs with, or while on duty with clients.
- Favored Healthcare Services employees are not allowed to accept gifts or financial gratuities (tips), or to discuss personal problems with, or while on duty with clients.
- No employee shall engage in selling products, food or lending money or other items to clients, nor borrowing money or other items from clients.
- No employee shall purchase any item for the client unless specified in the Client Care Plan validated by Favored Healthcare Services.
- Favored Healthcare Services employees are not allowed to bring visitors, friends, children, relatives, or pets while on duty with clients.
- Smoking in the homes of clients while on duty with Favored Healthcare Services and in the presence of clients prohibited.
- Reporting for duty under the influence of alcoholic beverages or illegal substances is prohibited at Favored Healthcare Services.

I acknowledge that I have read and am in agreement with the above statement.

Employee Signature:

Date: